

History- Can I use the enquiry method to investigate life of a significant person in the past who has contributed to national and international achievements

Today we have investigated the life and career of the British racing driver Mike Hawthorn. We used primary sources like photographs and films to discover why he was a significant person from the past, what happened in his life and career and why his achievements were significant nationally and internationally.

What have you learnt about Mike Hawthorn in your history enquiry?

He ~~lived~~
in a ~~scar~~.
He was a champion at racing. He won in Formula 1

Can I be a History detective and identify true facts about the Gunpowder plot?

Can you record at least one true fact about the events of the Gunpowder plot? I challenge you to describe how these events are an important part of our History.

~~For~~ They ~~are~~ ~~do~~ do the fireworks because that is how they remember ~~the~~ Guy Fawkes didn't blow up the king knows ~~the~~ I thrown
